

2011 Award Winners

Stephanie Allen accepts her award from Chairman Wayne Eichorn.

Ms. Precious Davis (center) accepts her award from Chairman Wayne Eichorn and her case manager Doris Martin (Shawnee Development Council, Inc.)

Ryan Collins from Personal Finance Company (center) accepts the Business Leadership award from Chairman Wayne Eichorn and Nona Rice (Mid 5 Training and Employment, Inc.)

Ms. Maura Williams (center) accepts her award from Chairman Wayne Eichorn and her case manager Nona Rice (Mid 5 Training & Employment, Inc.)

Area residents were recognized at the Southern 14 Workforce Investment Board Annual Meeting on December 13, 2011.

Individual Achievement Awards were presented to the following individuals for their accomplishments in overcoming significant obstacles to achieve their personal career goals:

Ms. Stephanie Allen (Galatia, IL)
Ms. Precious Davis (Cairo, IL)
Mr. James Kimmel (Mt. Carmel, IL)
Ms. Maura Bartok Williams (Eldorado, IL)

The Business Leadership Award was presented to Ryan Collins from the Personal Finance Company (Harrisburg, IL). This company has demonstrated its commitment to improving the workforce and economic development by giving many WIA youth clients the chance to gain work experience and has made a significant contribution to the economic viability of the Harrisburg community for the past 10 years.